Commanding huge respect among local authority and police colleagues for his community safety work Peter attends between 50 and 60 events a year promoting Crimestoppers always distributing to all and sundry a wealth of varied leaflets and other promotional materials. A consistently significant advocate since joining the Essex Committee in 2015, Peter represents the charity at community safety forums and other meetings whenever necessary. Peter also finds time for another charity that provides support to develop independent living for vulnerable people.

Judges' comments

It should be noted that one of the judges remarked that Peter is the perfect definition of a Crimestoppers Unsung Hero and all other judges readily agreed. All agreed too that it said much about Peter that he clearly gives generously in his volunteering for both Crimestoppers and Neighbourhood Watch. A thoroughly worthy winner.
